CLIMB HIGH, CLIMB FAR, YOUR GOAL THE SKY, YOUR AIM THE STARS

Song

"RIDE LIKE THE WIND"

It is the night
My body's weak
I'm on the run
No time for sleep
I've got to ride
Ride like the wind
To be free again

And I've got such a long way to go
To make it to the border of Mexico
So I'll ride like the wind
Ride like the wind

I was born the son of a lawless man
Always spoke my mind with a gun
 in my hand
Lived nine lives
Gunned down ten
Gonna ride like the wind

Accused and tried and told to hang I was nowhere in sight when the church bells rang
Never was the kind to do as I was told Gonna ride like the wind before I get old

SENIOR LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

I, Angie Antonelli, bequeath my good grades and my ability to be late for school without being marked tardy to my cousin Betty Jane, and my writer's cramp to Mr. Ross.

I, Cathy Beamer, bequeath to Laura Kaple and Patty Triplett the ability to keep perfect basketball stats for Mr. Pangrazio; to Joe Lawless my cousin Leslee; to Leslee Beamer all of my Amish friends and powers; to Luke Lawless my ability to put up with certain peoples' singing.

I, Tammi Bevan, bequeath my seat in the senior bull session to anyone who wants it.

I, Frank Boscarillo, bequeath to all future P.O.D. classes patience, endurance and a thousand other virtues — you're going to need every one of them. To Mr. Jagunic, I bequeath a complacent class that will put up with his sadistic tendencies and the thrill of being kicked all over the racquetball court by yours truly. To Mr. Maxwell, I bequeath another winning quiz team, and to the school, I bequeath the hope that the next four years will be better than the last four have been.

I, Kathy Breehl, bequeath to Dana Yurich my seat in the senior Bull session.

I, Tom Brendza, bequeath to Mike Breehl all the money he made working here this summer. To Mr. Jagunic, I bequeath another summer festival and racquetball lessons. To Tim Wright, I bequeath an "I Love America," button and a B-1 Bomber, complete with nuclear missiles, to play with. To Mr. Maxwell, I bequeath back his computer and continued success with the quiz team.

I, Jeff Brindley, bequeath all my hunting abilities to Doug Ross, all my books to whoever wants them, my art ability to who can handle it, my newspapers and high P.O.D. grades to Roddy. To Big Bob, I bequeath my baseball talents and to Jackie Mann, whatever!

I, Lori Burdette, bequeath to Miss Raiser the ability to have dances and make more than $37.00, to Bob Hall the ability to break needles in home Ec., and finally to my brother Jimmy, who I think will make it to state in Wrestling, "Keep Up The Good Work!" and, have fun your Junior and especially your senior year.

I, Chris Campo, bequeath Jack Fisher the Russ McHenry Shadow-Car and six cans of silly putty.

I, Donna Cercone, bequeath to Joe Magnacca and Mary Jo Ivan my ability to stay in neutral in 2nd period Study Hall arguments.

I, Jackie Cercone, bequeath to the Junior girls the ability to go out with their girlfriends and have a good time. I bequeath to Phil Bonanno all my sewing abilities for his next three years. I bequeath to Sherry Cercone all the fun I had my Senior year for her Senior year. To Sherry Cercone and Cassy Dusini, I bequeath, the ability to be good ambassadors of Goodwill for Mr. Teynor's sake.

I, Maureen Cody, bequeath to the next editor of the yearbook, the patience to put up with certain people who are afraid their picture won't be in it enough. To the future students of Mr. Ross, I bequeath the ability to keep their comments to themselves. To Luke Lawless a pair of brass knuckles and the bench by the gym. To Mike Normarn, I bequeath the ability to remember people's names and a set of weights.

I, Tim Colelli, bequeath my hairstyle to Mr. Pangrazio.

I, Donna Contini, bequeath to Lesa Miller a pass to Studio 54, a date with Danny Terio and the "Saturday Night Fever" soundtrack; to Bobbo and his "Friends" Fleetwood Mac's album "Rumors," and to any junior girl who thinks she's good enough, my seat in the "Bull Session."

I, Tom Coventry, bequeath the nickname "Otis" to James Zucal (just to keep it in the family), my artistic talent to Mike Bolden and Jimmy Burdette who really need it, to Roddy Bonamico my skill in sewing. To Tom Boscarillo I bequeath my president of the board seat in the RBPU's. I bequeath my Schultz army jacket to Big Bob Hall, my ability to go a whole baseball season without getting one error at second base to Doug Ross, and my hitting ability to Dave Triplett. I bequeath all of my newspapers that I forgot to read to next year's POD classes (good luck you'll need it), and my ability to get motivated to Mr. Fisher (I will try not to take a Social Servant). Anything you want Brenda C., you can have!!

I, Karen Cunningham, bequeath to Miss Garabrandt a special song, "Martini & Rossi, on the rocks say — 'YES'". To Miss Raiser, I leave all the memories of the rock. We love you both and good luck your remaining years at CCS. To my favorite 8th period Study Hall with the rowdy guys, I bequeath the ability to keep their mouths shut, and to stay out of trouble their remaining years at CCS — GOOD-LUCK. To my brother Richard, who will be coming here next year, all my books that I didn't have. Good-luck little brother.

I, Judy Dalpiaz, bequeath to Beth Swaldo a one-way bus ride to Philly High School or the strength to get through 2 more years of CCS; to Lisa Kaple the ability to find at least one party after the Philly-Dover game, and finally my place in the so-called "Bull Session" to any Junior girl who thinks she is good enough.

I, Jeff Dalpiaz, bequeath to Mike Bollon the ability to bet on college basketball games, and to Mr. Ross, season tickets to all the Ohio State games.

I, Theresa Daughtery, bequeath my basketball ability to Leslee Beamer, my ability to talk in-between and during classes to Suzy Colelli, my ability to make it through Central to Lori Miller, and my ability to come home past curfew to my sister Patricia.

I, Dave Day, bequeath my football pants (never washed) to James Zucal. I, along with my conspiritors, leave our cards in Chemistry to Bobbo, Craig and Mags.

I, Chris Doney, do hereby bequeath the following: to Mr. Ross season tickets to the Browns games, to Tom Casimir and Mike Bollon my baseball trivia knowledge, to Mrs. Harmon my ability to punch and peck and still type 47 words per minute, to Tim Karl my RBPU Presidency and pilgrim shoes, to Jerry Myers a board to fight back with, to Mr. Fisher a detention I didn't deserve, and to all my underclassmen, all the wisdom, happiness and friendship I have found at Central.

I, Doug Dusini, bequeath all of my best and outstanding hats and all of my Study Hall Quizzes to Tom Patterson because he knows where to put them. I also bequeath all of my baby pictures to Laura King.

I, Matt Fantin, bequeath to Terri Helbling 2 more years of fun carpooling with Natalie Young and one year by yourself. To Miss Green, 8 inches of height, and to Miss Raiser and Miss Garabrandt 10 gallons of gas.

I, Nancy Ginnetti, bequeath my seat in our "Bull Session" to any Junior girl who can handle it, to Lisa Kaple all of my wild weekends, and to Scott Vinci, a free ticket to any Ohio State game of his choice.

I, Mark Haas, bequeath all of my Geometry skills to Kim Busch and my wrestling skills to Joe Cecil.

I, Dianna Levengood Hiltz, bequeath to Ronna Coventry my ability to resist hot fudge sundaes and french fries.

I, Renee Kaufman, bequeath nothing to nobody because everyone will want what I have.

I, Dave Kopp, bequeath all my knowledge of sports to Mr. Ross. I bequeath my parley business to Jim Zucal, my athletic ability to Rich Beamer, and my high P.O.D. grades to whoever wants them.

I, Joe Krocker, bequeath all of my vehicles to anyone going into the junkyard business.

I, Mark Lamonica, bequeath all my good drafting grades to my brother Darryl, my basketball shoes to Rich Beamer and my jersey to Bob Springhetti. My Hot Rod magazines to Rob "Two Wheel Pose" Miller, my 4 barrel and manifold to Jim Zucal. I also bequeath to the football team the privilege of beating Strasburg and my senior shirt to anyone who may not make it next year.

I, Barb Lawless, bequeath the presidency of the "Twice as Fun Club" to Jennifer Young, and the vice-presidency to Gina Martinelli, more good times to my volleyball buddies, my "brownie" ability to Luke and Joe, and my ability to pick winners to Mr. Ross.

I, Amy Lehman, being of sound mind and body, bequeath to Laura Moeller my spot at Strasburg tower. To Scott Waltz, and Bonnie Smith I bequeath the patience to put up with another year on the Tusky Valley bus, and last but not least, to next year's seniors, all the fun we had this year.

I, Dave Litty, bequeath my last gallon of gasoline to Miss Garabrant and Miss Raiser! I bequeath Tom's, Dave's and my cards to Bobbo, Craig and Joe Mags (if they keep playing in chemistry)!

I, Vince Magnacca, bequeath nothing to no one except that my brother and sister get the biggest share.

I, Mary Beth Mangon, bequeath my shorthand ability to Mary Baio and Regina Sciacetti, to Sally Sifferlin the ability to handle the position as editor of the newsletter one more year and finally my position as Vice-president of the Pep Club to anyone who can handle it.

I, Jenny Mann, bequeath to my sister Jackie my skating ability and the ability to use a curling iron without getting burned. To Diann Sandy, I bequeath one more exciting year at Central. I also bequeath my books to anyone who can use them more than I did, and my Pep Club Presidency to anyone who wants it.

I, Quint Marcaletti, being of demented mind and tortured body, hereby bequeath to James Zucal my 480-4661 engine, to Russ McHenry another cheerleading outfit and space patrol helmet, and to John Cecil my collection of Moscow mugs.

I, Carol Markino, bequeath all of my fun times in band, during lunch, and on the boulevard to Lisa Kaple. To David Lagatta, I bequeath one gallon of gasoline for his moped, to Marcia Campo one bottle of valve oil, to Lori Roth, all my unused volleyball and sewing talents, to Steve DiDinato "Good Luck" during your years at CCS, and finally my seat in the "Bull Session" to any junior girl who can handle it.

I, Cheryl Markino, bequeath my ability to stick out the last year of band and also someone to go to Dover pep rallies with to Lisa Kaple. To Phillip Bonanno, I leave one final "you know what I mean?" To David Lagatta the car of his choice, and finally, my seat in the Bull Session to any junior girl who thinks she is good enough to have it.

I, Jackie Martinelli, bequeath to Carol and Denise a map to Tappan Beach, to Alan the strength to get through this place, to Sherm my sympathy (three years of total boredom left), and to Jackie Mann the keys to my little white Dasher so she can cruise incessantly.

I, Randy McConnell, bequeath to Mr. Fisher a set of keys to my old green station wagon that I juked and to Joe Pauline, a damp sponge to wipe "Blake" off my locker.

I, Russ McHenry, bequeath my ability to brown nose teachers to Roddy Bonamico, my cheerleading ability to Bobbo Beamer, my little bit of craziness to Phillip Bonanno if he needs it, my stainless steel spearhead to Big John Parsons and my football ability and penalties to Luke Lawless, even if he doesn't need it.

I, Mary McLaughlin, bequeath to Lisa Kaple my ever constant smile, "you're going to need it." I also bequeath to Marissa Alexander my devotion to stay with whatever I start, mainly T.I.

I, Jeff Moder, bequeath all my illegal flannel shirts to Mr. Finn, to Rich a dictionary with reasonable definitions, and to Miss Green a platform to stand on while teaching.

I, Jovonna Myers, bequeath to all the sophomores who are going to attend Buckeye Joint Vocational School all the really great times I had there.

I, Diane Neiger, bequeath to Lesa Miller all the fun times with C.R. as I had with D.A. over the summer (HAI)

I, Tom O'Donnell, bequeath my auctioning talent to Phillip Bonanno, my track skills to Mike Bollon, my ability to play parleys to Glenn Doney, and my deck of cards to Little Mags, Bobbo and Craig for Chemistry Class.

I, Maria Parcell, bequeath to all the underclassmen who rode the Claymont bus the fun of getting here at CCS 2 minutes before the bell rings and walking into homeroom when you are darn good and ready.

I, Pam Patterson, bequeath my car to my brother Tom, and to Father Dan a German Shepard.

I, Becky Pietro, bequeath to all the girls in the class of 1982 the ability to get along with the fellow students and the charm we the girls in the class of 1981 have. I also bequeath to all the future cheerleaders the ability to stick with it that I had, and to the underclassmen guys, too bad there's not much left.

I, Sue Raiser, bequeath to Betty Jane Antonelli my ability to be in home room before the second bell rings and my terrific ability to stay away from Strasburg guys. I also bequeath to Terri Helbling my tennis ability, to Ms. Angie Raiser a brand new tennis racket, and to Mr. Jagunic a new stage manager and a organized grading system that returns term papers before the following year.

I, Bink Ravine, bequeath nothing to nobody.

I, Dave Reynolds, bequeath to Miss Honnaker my life long library pass, to Mike Bollon my membership in the San Antonio fan club, to Mr. Ross my Tampa Bay and USC season tickets, and one sack of cracked corn to Mr. "we" Hannon.

I, Jean Riley, bequeath the patience to get through four very long years at Central to any one who needs or wants it.

I, Lora Shalosky, bequeath to Dana the privilege to sit in on one of the Senior group therapy sessions, to Mr. Jagunic all of the romantic novels and science fiction short stories he can read in a week, and finally to my brother Tony, my paycheck so he can buy his pair of Nike's.

I, Lori Smokovich, bequeath to Jennifer Young my ability to stay in band four years (P.S. size 7, you'll make it, Good Luck!). I also bequeath to Lisa Walters, my books so she'll have something to do in Mr. Ross's study hall, and to Diann Sandy all the fun we had this year and hope it's as good next year, remember the fireworks?

I, Sherri Springhetti, bequeath all my cheerleading ability to Jodi Moder. I bequeath the ability of being captain of the varsity cheerleaders to anyone good enough to replace me (if there is). I also bequeath to my sister Lynn all my brother's basketball ability, to my brother Bob all my driving skills, and to my favorite underclassman, Tim Roth, all my mathematical skills.

I, Julie Tricinski, bequeath my change of boyfriends to Theresa Rybarczyk, my shortness to Marc Alexander, and my neat handwriting to Mr. Ross whose isn't so easy to understand.

I, Christine Walsh, bequeath my supreme dizziness to anyone, my ability to take pictures without putting film in the camera to anyone, one green Phila Band van to Lori Milner, and to Chris Mertes the hope that she will never be "thrown out into the street like Old Mother Hubbard." I also bequeath to Mr. Jagunic the thought that he will never have to put up with me again.

I, Kim Walton, bequeath my limp to Cathy Magnacca, the ability to be noticed and my basketball skills to Kristy Vesco, and finally to Mr. Ross the ability to lose the key to my closet.

I, John Weigand, bequeath my Saints golf coat and a bottle of Martini and Rossi to Miss Garabrandt, to Panger I leave my insanity to match his own and the memories of all the basketball seasons. I bequeath to Diann Sandy a clean pair of pants, to Patti Roth better taste, to Cathy Deal my ability to act stuck up and the ducks and my ability to ignore underclassmen. And finally I bequeath to all underclassmen the challenge to mature enough physically and mentally to survive in the world.

I, Lisa West, bequeath to Mike Norman the ability to skip classes and have two lunch periods to see who you want to. I also bequeath to Patricia Daugherty all of my ex-dates and I hope that she has fun.

I, Teresa West, bequeath to Miss Raiser and Miss Garabrandt a night out of town. I also bequeath to Philip Bonanno a date when I'm 28 and you're 24 (if I'm not married).

I, Brian Young, bequeath to Laurie King a new lab partner for Physics since she is the most discriminated against in the class, and to Lori Roth and Monica Mertes a permanent referee for any arguments that start over "sunny" contests.

I, Bob Zucal, bequeath to my brother James my football talents, my knowledge of wrestling to the future Wrestling teams at Central and my letter to Joe Cecil. I also bequeath to Joe Cecil Slim and Bill Litty my sideline speeches on conscience.

IN THE YEAR 2001

FROM DENISON TO LAS VEGAS

Class Prophecy

In the year 2001, the class of 1981 is having a reunion in a pile of cinders, otherwise known as Jim's Barn. Suddenly, Christine Walsh makes the discovery that there is no building there. So, the entire class piles into the old Central bus, and travels west on Route 250 to the Doney Inn, proprietor, Chris Doney.

Once they get there, Renee Kaufman steps off the bus and trips, wiping out an entire plant formation on the front walk. Tom Brendza steps off the bus and looks into the sky, saying "Look, Alpha Centuri is going Super nova."

As we move to the front lobby, we see Mr. and Mrs. Dave Day (Mary Beth Mangon) talking about their ten kids.

In the corner of the lobby, a group of six girls (Carol Markino, Cheryl Markino, Judy Dalpiaz, Donna Contini, Nancy Ginnetti, and Jackie Martinelli) are involved in their annual bull session, just like old times.

Russ McHenry, who has just returned from Saturn, saunters in wearing his Space Patrol Uniform after parking his Lunar Module on Doney's roof.

As the assembly moves to the casino, Mags and Dave Kopp are shooting craps. Both are losing at a very fast rate.

Mark Lamonica and Quint Marcaletti comes strutting in making truck noises after parking their 4-wheel drive trucks with a 440 4-barrel and Keystone rims.

Bob Zucal arrives riding a skateboard and trips over an electrical wire, wiping out Doney's glass car collection.

Lisa West and Theresa Daugherty both come in dribbling basketballs, as Cathy Beamer is spiking the punch.

Karen Cunningham, the Flying Nun, smashes through a window and wipes out the buffet table. Doug Dusini, owner of the Mr. Hero franchise, has offered to supply the food for the rest of the reunion.

As we move down the hallway, Tammy Bevan and Kathy Breehl join the bull session with the other six members of the group. Jeff Brindley and Lori Burdette are standing in a nearby corner flirting away like butterflies with each other. Some things never change.

In another room, Frank Boscarillo and Barb Lawless are vehemently discussing magnetic hydrodynamic generators being installed in a school bus.

Tom O'Donnell and Teresa West, now married, are proudly showing off their six kids. (2 red heads, and 2 sets of twins!)

Maureen Cody and Jackie Cercone, the shadow sisters, are dancing and singing the latest soul hit.

Jenny Mann and Jean Riley are arguing about each of their latest romances.

Bink Ravine is now 6'1", 280 pounds; all the eating has caught up with him. He is outraged about the food table being wiped out.

Tom Coventry, who changed his mind about going to college, is now head baseball coach at Akron University. He is telling everybody how great the team is.

In another wing of the hotel, Brian Young, who has just won numerous Rich Jagunic look-alike contests, is now Super Brian. He is teaming up with Super Rich to stamp out double negatives in our society.

Someone inquires where Mark Haas is and Doney says he is attending a grain festival in Bullfrog, North Dakota.

Chris Campo, who was visiting Mark Haas on his farm, was stampeded by a wild team of hogs. Therefore, he could not make it to the reunion.

Next to enter the party are Donna Cercone, Sue Raiser, and Amy Lehman, who are all librarians at the National Library in Washington, D.C.

Tim Colleli now owns a drive-thru featuring Molson's from Canada.

John Weigand, now living in Hollywood, is Farrah Fawcett's manager.

The 1st one to wed in our class, Dianna Levengood Hilty, arrived in her new U.S. Army uniform. She joined so she could be closer to Eric, her hubby. So it's not just long weekends anymore.

Jeff Dalpiaz and Dave Reynolds are arguing over which is better, Ohio State or USC. They will find out later when the two teams play in the Rose Bowl.

Matt Fantin, who is now assistant basketball coach at Xavier University, is talking about how great his team is.

Angie Antonelli, late as usual, is speeding to the reunion and suddenly a deranged squirrel leaps on her car windshield, blocking her view of the road, and does a power slide right into the old school bus.

Randy McConnell, now the head honcho at the Quaker Theater, provides film entertainment for the reunion.

One member of the class of '81, unable to make the reunion, is Jeff Moder, who is traveling with the rock group Kansas as their stage manager.

As we move to the second floor of the inn, Dave Litty, who has won eight Gold Medals in the Olympics for swimming, is discussing his career with Sherri Springhetti and Becky Pietro, who are cover girls for Glamor magazine.

Joe Krockner, the manager of the Champion Spark Plugs Company, is discussing race cars with Pam Patterson, the first woman to win the Indy 500. Kim Walton gets in on the conversation and starts acting crazy as usual with her weird antics.

Lora Shalosky, a late arriver, joins the Bull Session with the other girls already there.

Maria Parcell and Julie Trucinski are having a talk about the latter's secret romance with Lester D. Rabbit.

In another corner of the room, Mary McLaughlin and Lori Smokovich are talking with Jill Roth about her recent marriage.

The last ones to arrive are Diane Neiger and Jovanna Myers, who have just arrived from J.V.S.

The reunion proves to be a success, and everyone says they've had a great time. Everybody agrees to have the next reunion in 2021 at the MKM Grand Inn, Las Vegas, (Mags-Kopp Motel). The reunion will be a week-long affair with all gambling, food, and drinks on the house.

The 1980 Saints varsity volleyball team ended the season with a 7-11 record. The girls have progressed and accomplished a lot since last season. The varsity squad traveled to Newark this year to take second place in their grueling tournament. Jill Roth was named the squad's M.V.P. Other awards went to Lori Roth most improved; Barb Lawless best offensive player; and Cathy Beamer best defensive player. Monica Mertes was also given an award for scoring the most points throughout the season.

The 1980-81 Saint cagers finished the campaign with a strong showing. Although ending the season with a 7-15 slate, the Central roundballers showed great poise and determination during the course of the season. The Saints made a respectable showing in Sectional Tournament action. First round play-off action saw the Saints surprise Hiland by a 45-35 count. The season ended the following week, however, as Central relinquished the perennial powerhouse Indian Valley South. The Saints were paced in scoring by Russ McHenry, with an average of 10 markers per contest. Matt Fantin led in rebounds hauling down 8 caroms on the par. The Saints team gave their fans plenty to cheer about this season with their "never say die" attitude and exciting brand of fast-paced basketball action. The basketball squad, coaches and staff are to be commended for a fine season and determined effort.

The Central Catholic girls' basketball squad, under first year mentor Bob Hannon, progressed rapidly during the season. Even though they concluded the campaign with a record of 5-16, determination and pride were motivational factors during the course of the season. This was clearly evident in the post-season tournament action versus Malvern, as the lady roundballers held the powerful Hornets in check until the final quarter. Individual honors were presented to Lisa West (District Honorable Mention) and Natalie Young (IVC Honorable Mention). With only four graduating players, the future looks bright for the Saint's girls' basketball program.

This spring's baseball season was quite successful with the Saints posting a 12-11-1 record. The squad, even though being eliminated early in the sectional tournament, came back to tie for second place in the I.V.C. southern division. With all underclassmen on the ballclub Coach Hannon feels that the team next year should greatly improve on this past seasons accomplishments.

Very young girls and boys Saints track teams made a lot of progress this year. They started slowly but improved each meet. At the year — end sectional, the boys placed 9th and the girls 7th out of thirteen teams, which was the highest finish for both teams in quite a few years. Tom O'Donnell, Lori Roth, and Karen Cunningham all qualified for district competition.

The Saints captured 4th place out of 8 in the Coshocton Invitational and 2nd place out of 4 in the Hiland Invitational.

The Saints tennis team is improving every year. Many of the matches were very close. They were usually tied 2-2 with one single match being the determining factor. Although the overall varsity record was 4-8, all members, varsity and reserve, showed determination throughout the season.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL OF CENTRAL CATHOLIC

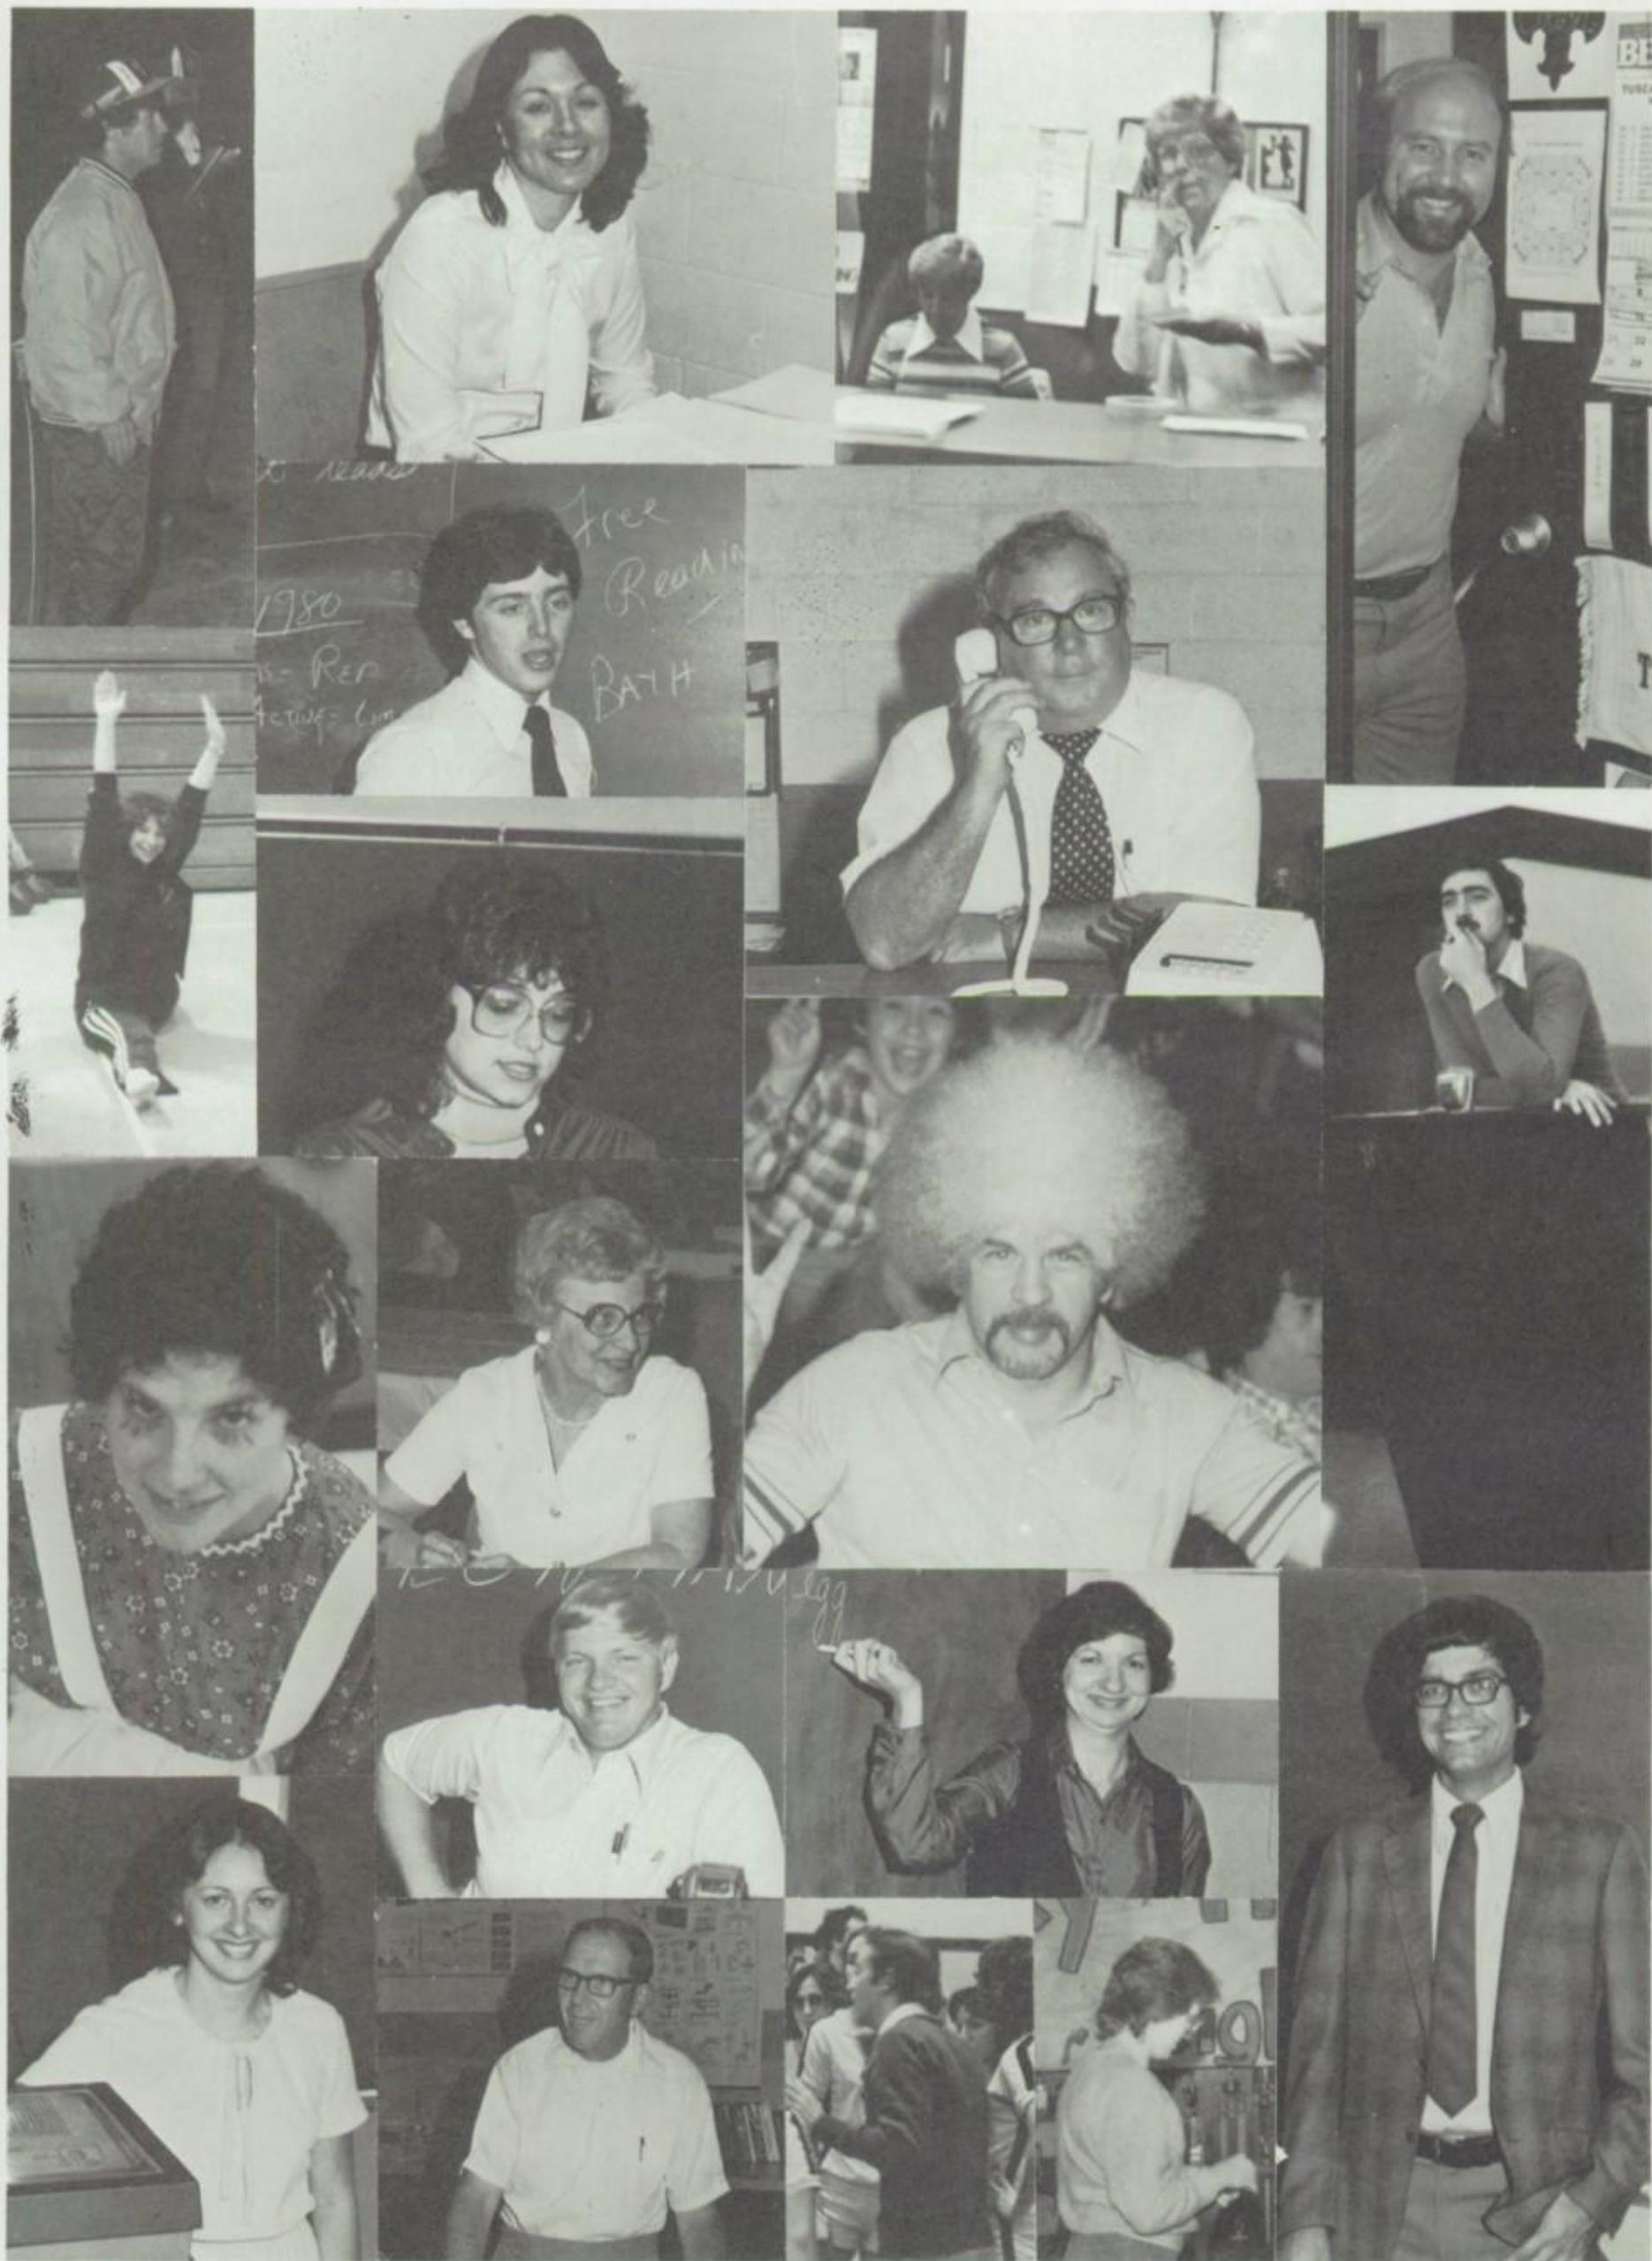

Central's Student Council is comprised of members elected from each of the four grade levels. Under the supervision of Mr. Ross, members remained aware of the needs of their school and community. They sponsored several service oriented projects, including a jump rope marathon for the Heart Association, a spaghetti dinner and a Christmas dinner for Central's faculty. This organization also contributed money for the Kim Walton and Berentz — Espenched funds, making an appearance on the telethon. Other activities sponsored by the group were a candy canes and school emblem mug sale, a halloween dress — up day, an exchange of student council members from Indian Valley North and an activities day for the entire Central student body.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class, would like to dedicate the 1981 Clarion to

KIM WALTON

Kim's courage and strength has been a fine example for our class.

Her outgoing and friendly manner is something we will always treasure.
